Monday March 24, 1881 was a very beautiful spring day, and beautiful in the comfortable house of Samuel Bray, Esq. of Shiloh; the occasion was the celebration of the 25th anniversary wedding of Mr. & Mrs. Bray. For twenty-five years, they have been sailing on board the old ship Matrimony - one as captain, the other as pilot and cook. Amid the storms and squalls, so incidental to a voyager of this kind, they have kept good watch for breakers ahead. The fires of affection have been increasing with purer brightness as year after year has wound to a close. The honeymoon did not pass away (as is too frequently the case, settling behind dark mountains, or losing itself forever in the turbid wave of the sea of life), but on the contrary, its rays have been increasing in brilliance and splendor - so that on this their twenty-fifth anniversary, the cup of life's joy, and life's real and lasting blessings, is rich and full. Between fifty and sixty invited guests and friends were present and participated on the occasion. The following is a list of presents with the names of friends who gave them. One beautiful silver cake stand, the children; one beautiful, hand-made bouquet, Mrs. J. Henry; one wall bracket, Mrs. T. Petit; one silver butter dish, A.P. Barnes and wife, F. Darling and wife, S. Stimple and wife, H. Ekey and wife; one silver spoon holding, McBride and wife, Wm. Martin and wife, R. Barnes and wife, C.S. Opdy and wife; one silver castor, J.H. Harron and wife, J.B. Barnes and wife, J.White and wife, W. Ferres and wife, J. Gilger and wife, Wm. Gettings and wife; one glass pickle dish in silver holder, Joseph Gilger and wife, T. Pettit and wife, J. Henry and wife, A. McBride and wife; one silver spoon, Mrs. B. Sizor; cash - $1, S. Dickey and wife; cash - $2, C. Strimple and wife. These gifts were presented to the long wedded pair, in a neat and appropriate speech by W. A. Ferree, Esq. Mr. Bray responded in a few words, thanking his many friends and neighbors for their remembrance and valuable gifts. After which the parties were invited out to dinner. The long tables, one in the dining room and one in the kitchen were filled and emptied, (I refrain from saying how many times) and such a dinner, meats, fruits, pastries, etc. All ate, talked, laughed and rejoiced. After dinner, Mr. Waite, the photographer from Plymouth, was in "waiting" to wait upon the party to a convenience spot, where he could secure a picture of the groups. After waiting for "old Sol" to hide himself behind a cloud, he hid the shadows of the party away in a little box he carries with him; the results of which is to be revealed in the near future. The parting hour came and with it came words of hope and love, that "When at last our days are gathered into God's great judgement one. We may find our names deep written, in the record of His Self." .....
